The Malaysian Journal of Public Health Medicine (MJPHM) welcomes articles of interest on all aspects of public health medicine in the form of original papers, research communications, quality improvement reports and epidemic reports. Articles are accepted for publication on condition that they are contributed solely to the MJPHM. Neither the Editorial Board nor the Publishers accept responsibility for the views and statements of authors expressed in their contributions.

Article Processing Fee for MJPHM

All articles in this Journal are Open Access and freely available on-line upon publications. In order to cover the cost of maintaining this Journal, the Malaysian Public Health Specialists’ Association has decided that an Article Processing Fee will be charged for all articles published after 1st January 2018. The Fee will be charged to the authors after the peer-reviewed process and the article is accepted for publication in MJPHM.

The Article Processing Fee is RM 500 for local (Malaysia) articles and USD 300 for articles from other countries. Instructions on the methods of payment and details of the bank account to transfer the fee will be given to the authors.

- Do not use the automatic formatting features of your word processor such as endnotes, footnotes, headers, footers, boxes etc.
- Please remove any hidden text.

Tables

Tables Should be:
- In the same format as your article (ie Word) and not another format embedded into the document such as: photo.
- Should be placed where the table is cited and they must be cited in the main text in numerical order.
- Not more than 5 tables.
- If you have figures, so both tables & figures should not be more than 6 as a total for both.
- We cannot accept tables as Excel files within the manuscript.

References

Authors are responsible for the accuracy of cited references: these should be checked against the original documents before the paper is submitted.

Citing in the text

- References must be numbered sequentially as they appear in the text with a superscript Arabic numeral before the punctuation, e.g., Superscript numbers in the text inform the reader of when to reference a footnote. If subsequent reference is made to a citation, the original reference number should be used again.

- All reference numbers must be before the punctuation.
- References cited in figures or tables (or in their legends and footnotes) should be numbered according to the place in the text where that table or figure is first cited.
- Reference numbers in the text must be inserted immediately after the word (with no word spacing)—for example: word

- If there is more than one reference is cited, separate by a comma, for example: word\textsuperscript{1, 4, 39}.

- For sequences of consecutive numbers, give the first and last number of the sequence separated by a hyphen, for example: word\textsuperscript{22-25}.

- Please note, if your references are not cited in order your article will be returned to you before acceptance for correct ordering.

Preparing the reference list

- References must be single spaced (numbered consecutively in the order in which they are mentioned in the text) in the (slightly modified) Vancouver style (see example below).

- Only papers published or in press should be included in the reference list.

References must follow the [slightly modified] Vancouver style:

- The journal title should be in italic and abbreviated according to the style of Medline. If the journal is not listed in Medline then it should be written out in full.

- Check journal abbreviations using PubMed.
- List the names and initials of all authors if there are 3 or fewer; otherwise list the first 3 and add et al.
